

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Edna Crume is expected home, from Cordell, Okla., tomorrow.

Bud Wilkerson came in Sunday morning from Roswell, and went to his ranch.

Mrs. Sarah Haney came back from Roswell last Friday to resume residence on her claim.

Mrs. Bostwick came home to her claim Thursday. She had been at Dexter for some time.

Mrs. Austin and family have gone to Roswell again, where the children will attend school.

Charlie Northcutt left Monday morning for Silverton, Tex., where he will attend school this winter.

W. H. Colvard made a crack shot the other day. He killed a rabbit and rattlesnake at the one "shoot."

Geo. Northcutt has turned out to be an "honest horny-handed farmer," and is busy these days cutting feed.

Henry Dougherty has been back with us again this week, visiting his friends and looking after his deeded farm, north of town.

Born: Saturday, Sept. 10, to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Collins, of Kenna, a fine baby boy. Dr. H. R. Thomas was in attendance.

John Falxa made Kenna a brief visit again last week. He was only here one day, and the writer did not even have the pleasure of meeting him.

I am needing some 6 inch casing, and if "Uncle Dick" will bring in what he has will be much obliged.

J. A. Kimmons.

H. W. Fry has moved into town, with his family, to send his children to school. They will occupy the Hawkins building, on North Main.

George Currie and his son Ellis came home to their claim Wednesday. George says the farmers in Texas, where he has been, are feeling pretty joyous over the 20 cent cotton markets.

It is unusual for a newspaper to publish two write-ups of the same affair, but it just happens that, unknown to each other, two parties from different neighborhoods reported the Clappert-McAuley wedding, and, to give a square deal, we have printed both accounts.

On Sunday Sept. 4th, at the West hotel in the presence of quite a number of friends and relatives Mr. C. C. Clappert and Miss Isabel McAuley were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Justice Northcutt officiating. Both of the contracting parties are residents of the Olive community. Mr. Clappert is a young man of sterling worth and has shown superior taste and sound judgment in choosing a life companion so capable of presiding over the comfortable home he has been provident enough to have in readiness for her. Their many friends join in wishing them a long useful and happy life and that degree of worldly prosperity that will be for their highest and best good. A by no means insignificant

Notice is hereby given that by the Act of Congress, approved June 22, 1910 (Public-No. 229), it was enacted—

That an additional land district is hereby created in the Territory of New Mexico, to embrace lands described as follows: Beginning at the point where the township line between townships four and five north of the base line parallel intersects the boundary line between the Territory of New Mexico and the State of Texas; running thence west from said intersection along township line to its intersection with the line between ranges fifteen and sixteen east of the New Mexico prime meridian; thence south along said range line to the township line between townships five and six south; thence east along said township line to the boundary line between the Territory of New Mexico and the State of Texas; thence north on and along said boundary line to the place of beginning; and that Fort Sumner, within said district, is hereby designated as the site for the land office thereof.

In pursuance of said Act of Congress the land office at Fort Sumner, New Mexico, will be opened for the transaction of public business on October 1, 1910. The Registers and Receivers of the land offices at Roswell and Santa Fe, New Mexico, will transact no business pertaining to the lands included within the above-described boundaries after September 30, 1910.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, District of Columbia, this fifteenth day of July, A. D. 1910.

FRED DENNETT.

Commissioner of General Land Office.

feature of the occasion was the most excellent dinner prepared by Mrs. West who on more occasions than one has proven herself an adept in the culinary art. If there are other Chaves Co., young men contemplating such a step and want a feast suitable to the occasion we would say go to the West hotel to get it.

—A GUEST.

Spot for Lady Godiva.

"Talk about vanity!" exclaimed the woman who keeps her eyes open. "I passed a big new building the other day—big enough to be a school or a theater—and what do you suppose it was to be devoted to? Hair—hair! Puffs and braids and swirls and switches and curls and rats and things for women to pin on their heads and make believe belong to them. A building full of hair!"

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can over tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters. Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed 50c. at all Druggists."
